

General Pants Co.
2IC / Assistant Manager
Rouse Hill

As one of Australia's largest and most influential retailers, General Pants Co. exists to disrupt the average and bring together the best global trends and fashion to inspire young-blooded individuals.

The 'Must Haves' for an Assistant Retail Store Manager:

- 5 years retail sales experience
- A minimum of 2 years retail management experience – 2IC level or above
- Ability to confidently lead, motivate and engage your team of sales assistants daily
- A genuine love and understanding of fashion and retail
- Proven experience and success in coaching and developing teams and individuals
- Proven track record of driving and exceeding sales targets and budgets
- Self-driven and can work as part of a wider team
- A 'want' to learn and grow beyond your role

Nice to haves for Assistant Retail Store Manager:

- Strong knowledge of the local demographic in terms of customers and competitors
- Sound knowledge and proven success in retail operations including sales budgets, wages, rostering, VM, stock management, shrinkage, etc

Benefits for an Assistant Retail Store Manager:

- GP Days - take up to an extra 5 annual leave days per year...just because
- Diverse career paths - the sky is the limit...set your own course
- Staff discount - a generous staff discount applies to all products in store.
- Parties and events - parties throughout the year and they are renowned for nights to remember-
- Training and development - We offer a broad range of training workshops (both internally and externally), designed to help you develop management or technical skills.
- Management incentive scheme - as well as random competitions with cash and product giveaways every week.
- Our People Days - we want to pay you to give your time to your supported charity.

If leading and selling come naturally to you, and you are committed to supporting your team, our customers and our vision, then you're a perfect match for General Pants Co. apply now!